++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Often cloudy tonight, but dry for most.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some clear spells at times at first tonight, but for many it will be a rather cloudy night. The cloud will be thick enough to give the odd spot of rain in the west and over hills by morning. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Saturday:
It will be a rather cloudy day for many. There will be occasional bright spells, but equally the chance of a light shower. A moderate breeze developing along western coasts. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mostly cloudy on Sunday with some mainly light rain or drizzle. Turning more unsettled and breezier next week but remaining mild by day and night.
